

Make a fully mobile responsive website from the following codebase without changing the design on desktop. Make sure it is consistent across all pages and looks good on mobile.

all pages and components should be responsive for example the navbar and homepage should look good on mobile and show all the contents without issues